

In Honor of . . . Black History Month

*THE AFRICAN AMERICAN HERITAGE FOUNDATION OF MAUI
Presents*

A SALUTE TO AFRICAN AMERICAN CIVIL WAR SOLDIERS

on

Sunday, February 3, 2008 + 2:00pm to 4:00pm

at

Hale Mahaolu Akahi Community Center
300 Wakea Avenue + Kahului, Maui

Directions: From Puunene, make a left at the corner of Wakea, travel about .6 miles, make a left on Hina. As soon as possible, park on either side of Hina, then walk to the 1st driveway on the left & come down to the Community Center entrance.

This Informative & Inspiring Community Fellowship Will Feature

The Video: Fight For Freedom

which explores the creative tension between President Lincoln, his Union Generals, and the United States Congress as they struggle with the issue of enlisting “colored troops.”

The Exhibit: Civil War, United States Colored Troops Remembered

which is a personal, historical and genealogical journey using a Civil War photo, a family tree, primary sources and commemorative photos researched and compiled by Angela Smith, the Great Great Grand-daughter of Alfred Ramey, 16th United States Colored Troops, Company “F” — December 1863 to April 1866.

The Presentation will be facilitated by Angela Smith, AAHFM President

— Refreshments Served —

For More Information About

Visit Our Website: www.aahfm.org
Or Call Us At 879-4748